

XM is an excellent service and I benifit from the instant weather and traffic. It seems to me that The National Association of Broadcasters is trying to keep the monopoly that they have over radio by shutting up the little guy. This is unfair and violates the first ammendment. This should not even be an issue.
Brian Lane